LETTER FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

Folks we now live in interesting times, and for many of us these are very stressful and scary times, but we also live in an age where we can gather together in the virtual realm. We will work to help provide online hangouts and gatherings, so that we can all still enjoy the best social aspects of the SCA. The strength of the SCA, the Kingdom of An Tir, and the Barony of Stromgard, lies in its people. Many of you are already participating in reaching out to others through social media, and I applaud you for helping to keep us entertained, and to help others from feeling alone, please keep up the good work.

So, if you would like to read to us, sing to us, play music for us, teach us new skills, or show us your art or projects, please send out the signal, we are listening, we are watching, and we are loving you for helping everyone through these stressful times.

We would also like to now ask for those among you that are skilled in using social media, to help us set up more ways to come together in a virtual way. Are ears are open, please send us your ideas.

In Service

Duncan, Baron of Stromgard

Moir, Baroness of Stromgard

MONTHLY RECIPE

PEER IN CONFYT FOC XXVI.XI

THANKS TO CEARA INGEN CHONAILL

Peers in Confyt:

Take peer and pare he clene. Take gode rede wyne and mulberes op fander and feep p per pin whan pei Buth yfode, take he up, make a fyrup of whyne gereke of vnage w blance powd of white fug and powdo gyng and do the per pin. Feep it a lytle and meffe it forth.

My Translation:

Take pears and clean and pare them. Take good red wine and mulberries or sanders and simmer them. When both are soft, take them out and make a syrup of wine with white powder of sugar and powdered ginger and make a thick syrup. Serve over the pears.

What I did:

I used 3 Bosc pears and carefully sliced them into equal sized pieces being careful to not get any seeds. I set them in a pot with 500ml of red wine and 1/2 pint of raspberries. I cannot find anything but dried mulberries where I live and I didn't have any sanders.

After the pears and berries had cooked until a fork was inserted into a pear easily, I removed them from the winey broth and added in 1/2 cup + 2 tbsp. of sugar and 1 tbsp. powdered ginger. I let this mixture simmer and reduce for about 20 minutes. I then poured the wine mixture back over the cooked fruit.

While on its own, it was delicious. However I think it would have been smashing over a sponge cake with some creame bastard

Officers Reports

Seneschal : Ronan present—Written report

Greetings to their Excellency's, Baron and Baroness and populace of Stromgard, Here is my March Seneschal Report. Had a great time at Founding Revel. Glad to see all the well deserved recognition. Please remember to nominate so others can be recognized at future events. Speaking of future events we are all aware by now of the continued cancellation of all Kingdom events through May 10th. Bad News Ithrapalooza in May has been cancelled, good news we have proactively rescheduled the event for Sept 25-27th. We still need to verify dates with site and do not foresee any issues but hopefully have beaten the mad scramble to get it back on the Kingdom Calendar. Also need to cancel dates for any insurance ordered or make necessary date changes Date for Yule has been reserved for December 5th and are excepting bids from Event Stewards. Are next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday April 15th and will be a conference call as well. Keep in mind for those officers 1Q reports are still due before the 15th. Please stay safe in these times of self quarantine and social distancing.

Yours in Service,
Laird Ronan Mac an Leagha

Chamberlain: Office open

Alexander Greyson was voted in as Chatelaine

Arts and Science: Hevli present, written report

Nothing to Report. Meetings and activities are cancelled until May, at least. Any ideas for virtual classes or other ways to share Arts & Sciences progress or knowledge would be appreciated. I know folks are posting stuff on the Book of Faces, and there are certainly plenty of YouTube videos to peruse. I was thinking about setting up a virtual "Round Robin" (a letter – think blog – in which a person writes about their project, then the next person adds a bit about their project, and so on – open to the Populace.) Link to see it at: <https://robinjwri6.wixsite.com/arts-sciences> Anyone want to volunteer to go first?

Herald: Yin Yun present, Written report

Greetings to the populace, and their excellencies. Febuary was relatively quiet save for Founding Revel. Where I, Lissete, and Carina ran a successful heraldic cosultation table. We helped a total of 4 people with devices and names. I also received the amazing baronial heraldic regalia! Made by Achoxi and her amazing team! Many thanks to our Baroness Moira, for organizing the regalia group! As well as a thank you to all of those whom lent a hand.

Yours in service.

Chatelaine: Dagmar present, written report

Greetings Stromgard!

Things are temporarily very different during these plagued times and I hope everyone is taking precautions and living a healthy, happy life during quarantine. Founding Revel was an amazing event! Again I thank everyone who helped, taught, and attended. I have some crafting activities lined up as Chatelaine to help when we are able to have Demos again. One is a painted sign that we will be able to put up during things like Practice at the Park and any other events we have where the people can see us. While in quarantine, I will be taking full advantage of the magic web and our Instagram connection to millions of Non-SCAdians. I will be using the account as a virtual Demo platform, so I will need photos and short video clips (up to one min long) to share with the world. I Thank and Applaud You All in Advance for Keeping Our Dream Alive in New Digital Ways During This Pandemic!

Chronicler: Ragna present, written report

I uploaded the Siren on the 4th. still having some challenges accessing the website to upload there. I will be working with Helvi to resolve this. I would appreciate input on the new things i'm adding to the Siren to see if it is something people are liking or if I need to adjust it. I'm also in contact with Dragons Mist's chronicler and we're working to coordinate with each other and hopefully three mountains to come up with some ideas to make our individual newsletters better but still show the cooperation our three baronies have.

Officer Reports Continued

I'm also wanting to put in some things in the siren related to ADA accessibility. such as things we are already doing and resources that are available for those who need it or want to be of assistance. any help i can get with this would be much appreciated. Again I appreciate everyone's patience with my growing pains and I feel your patience will pay off with a rewarding letter. I have many Ideas but am still working on execution.

Knight Marshal: Elrin, absent —verbal report. fight practice report provided by Duncan

Up until the ban both the Baronial fighter practices, and the regional practice were well attended. A special thank you goes out to Earl Sir Edward for running the war unit maneuvers at regional practice. There are no injuries to report at either practice. Hopefully this break will give everyone time to heal for when things open up again. Thank you to everyone that has been supporting Fighter practice

Rapier Marshal: Chris present—written report

Greetings all,
As the winter is coming to an end, I am starting up Rapier practices again. We had a Practice at my house March 4th and plan to have a new one every other week. Each week will be an hour and a half long with half of the practice being a lesson and the other half being open sparring. My House is able to comfortably hold 6 people and have room for about 10 total. using last year as a guide i doubt we will get over 6 people per week. the first practice we had 5 people total with interest to keep showing up. I have also been focusing on spare gear and will be donating my black fencing jacket and older gloves to the spare gear. I also wish to personally purchase one of the XL helmets we purchased last year for myself and use that money to help purchase a smaller helmet for Stromgard. I also was able to purchase a XL shirt that will go into the spare gear that i got for only $50, A great deal for a SCA Legal rapier shirt. With that i should have the basics except for a gorget which i hope to make this year at some point. the only thing i will be missing at that point are a second pair of gloves.

I believe this is a great start for a growing year
Chris Perkins

Due to the cancellations practice is on hold

Fenris and I are excited to be your Captains of Sergeantry. We are working with Refskeg and Kata to finish up the last parts of the change over and will be reaching out to all of the candidates this coming week. We will be inviting them to the Stromgardian group on Facebook and helping work to make sure everyone has mentors. I want to remind everyone that interested persons can still declare their intent to join the Sergeantry trials for this year. Her Excellency has graciously agreed to accept letters of intent at Ithra-palooza. Fenris and I are looking forward to the coming year and have high hopes for all of the Candidates!

Event Reports

Founding Revel— Feburary 29, 2020

The event was a success and came together thanks to the hard work of all those that volunteered their time. We had 94 adults attend, 13 children, 54 feast tickets sold plus 1 youth feast ticket. The total positive income for the Barony was about $110. The addition of a light lunch was well received and appreciated. The other minor changes seemed to go over well too. I will be happy to steward this event again in 2021.

Yours in Service
Lady Dagmar Thorfinrsdottir
Chatelaine & Strombard

Ithrapalooza

Ithrapalooza is rescheduled for September 25-27 on kingdom calendar, as those are the days the site is tentatively available. Awaiting word from the site manager to confirm. Teachers have been informed. About half of them are okay with sticking with the new dates, so we will have work to do in getting more teachers and classes to replace those not on board. Luckily, the hardest one to acquire, the basketry teacher, is totally ready to go and happy to join us on the new date. Thanks to our staff and teachers for their great help and loyalty in getting this off the ground – eventually.

Yours in service,
Helvi & Ronan

Stormgod 2020

Attendance

Old Business

Alexander was approved by council as Chamberlain

New Business

Purchase helmets for Rapier—

Chris wants to buy back one of the XL helmets and use that money to purchase a smaller helmet for loaner gear. Ronan's concern is what was the original purchase price for the helmet and how much it was going to be sold back for. Chris stated he is willing to pay $40 and use that and some of the rapier funds to purchase the other helmet. Everild stated Chris can write the Barony a check for the original amount and the Barony will pay for a new one.

Roasters— Kata and Refskegg found turkey roasters on sale and bought three of them. They would like to know if the Barony would like to purchase some to replace the old ones that are dying, and if so, how many they would like to purchase.

Ronan moved for the barony to buy all three of the roaster pans—it was approved by council.

Kata stated for the time being they were willing to store them. Ronan advised Kata to contact the Chamberlain to store the roasters.

Siren— Ragna has been trying to get some ideas on what to add to the Siren and not getting a lot of feedback. Asking council directly for ideas. Some ideas put out were pictures from the different events, games and how to make them, updates from sargentry candidates on their trials progress, recipes, ask local bards to write down short stories or poems, the baron will try to get some history of an tir tid bits, word search, where's the hippocampus, find the baron and baroness.

Virtual meetings — any suggestions on how to set up virtual meetings that may work better than what is currently being used
