LETTER FROM THE BARON AND BARONESS

Greetings Stromgard! July Coronation and A Game of Thrones and Stormgods were excellent events despite the heat. There were eight peerage elevations Royal Court at Coronation of well deserving individuals as well as a smooth and moving transition of the Crown. At Stormgods, We welcomed a goodly number of stalwart combattants to vie to become StormGod and StormBlade with Sir Ulfgar and the Honourable Lord Mieczyslaw once again defending their titles. It was Sir Ulfgar, victorious against Sir Nicoli, who for the third time in a row was named StormGod. StormBlade Mieczyslaw was bested by his friend and our new StormBlade Martyn Baxter. We released our StormHunter Anastasia from our service and bestowed the right to style herself Stormhunter for her service to Stromgard. The Honourable Lady Drifa has consented to remain our StormRider until such time we can schedule a tournament through the end of our tenure as Baron and Baroness. It was also our pleasure to present several Baronial awards; Baron's Favors went to Raul Ladvenue, Amice de Chatten, Feradach the Beardless, Ataias ek Parlatate and the Baroness, Ordo Famuli to Ronan Mac an Leagha, Amicus Musarum to James Redbeard, Bell and Chain to Tatyanna of Stromgard, Fenris Na, Taliesin Ystalwyn, Efa Ystalwyn, Luciano Foscari and Xtobel Dagger. Baron Ivon will be traveling South to the Barony of Terra Pomaria for the Long and Short of It Tournament and He'd like to have the company of anyone local who might be able to join him. Alternatively, consider going to Dragon's Down in the Shire of Fire Mountain Keep the same weekend. Both are wonderful events. Baroness Hlutwige will be heading out to the Canton of KaldorNess for one or two events this month... decisions still need to be made. The Tri-Baronial Archery and Thrown Weapons Tournament event is coming up the second weekend of September and we are both looking forward to the selection of our next StormHunter! We are lucky enough to have the aid of Master Andrew the Diabolical in the planning of our tournament and we will both be involved with running it. Please remember, if you wish to compete to become the StormHunter, send us a private note (electronic is fine) and be prepared to present a short letter of intent and introduction at morning court (remember to state who your inspiration is). We have received notice from two couples who wish to put their names before the Crown to be considered as our successors. Apologies for not posting the names at Stormgods as planned. We both got busy and it slipped our minds. They are; Moira Ramsay with Duncan Vitrius and AElfwyn Fisk with Matthias von Schwarzenberg. The end date for any who wish to submit their names will be decided at September Crown by the Crown and Their Heirs. Once we have that date, we can begin scheduling the rest. Officers, please review the information on the web site and send updates and changes to the Webminister. We'd like to hear your recommendations for Baronial awards and don't forget to send the Crown recommendations as well!

In Service to Stromgard and the Crown,

Ivon & Hlutwige

Officers Reports

Seneschal : Alexander Present, written report

Greeting to the baron and baroness, and the population of Stromgard.

Just time for a quick recap.

It is encouraged that each local group have a warranted Social Media Officer. The position responsibilities is very detailed and they will work closely with kingdom. The overview of the position will be posted on the Stromgard Facebook page. Once the position has been added to the customary we can open it for applications.

At the least, site copy should indicate:
* where/who to go to onsite for help in a medical emergency (if no cell service), and where/who to go to/notify if there is cell service and 911 has been called.

* is there an emergency evacuation plan (another exit?) in the case of fire/flood/earthquake? The kingdom is working on a defined format that will be available for use for future events. At the Board of Directors July 2018 meeting, the following change to Corpora was approved and is to be considered effective immediately.

“SCA Statement of Core Values

In pursuing its mission, the SCA is committed to excellence in its programs, communications and activities and to

- act in accordance with the chivalric virtues of honor and service;
- value and respect the worth and dignity of all individuals;
- practice inclusiveness and respect pluralism and diversity;
- promote a safe and respectful environment for all SCA events;

- act with transparency, fairness, integrity and honesty;
- be a responsible steward of SCA resources; and,
- be committed to maintaining the trust of its members and participants.

It is the expectation of the SCA that its members and participants, in all events and activities of the SCA, will conduct themselves in accordance with these tenets.”

And with that, that is all.

Yours in service

Alexander Son of Gray

Family Activities: Annora present, written report

Warm greetings to all! July Coronation didn't have much to offer children this time around, so a small group of us pulled together and brought out some small activities for kids to pass the time during court. The heat at Stormgods was intense, but we persevered and children emerged to partake in the activities and classes that were offered. The piñata at Baron's Bash was a delight for all! The children walked away with fistfuls of candy and onlookers were given a rare opportunity to witness Her Excellency, Hlutwige, wallop the Viking longship piñata into a flattened lump. The morning sewing class had 6 eager participants and we were all featured in the Columbian's article about our event. The Children's Lunch wasn't as successful....the heat kept most people at their camps and nearly exhausted my Herald. Luckily, a very generous newcomer jumped in at the last minute to tell the last remaining children a story. I was very appreciative. The clay bead making class taught by Illaria was a huge hit as was the Gluckhaus game hour. I was able to teach a new family all about medieval games. They, unfortunately, had to leave before court, but they seemed very interested in our group. All in all, a successful weekend for families and children. In Service, Annora

Exchequer: Everild present, Quarterly report submitted.

Chamberlain: Ronan present, written report.

Greetings to their Excellency's, Baron and Baroness of Stromgard, Here is July's Chamberlain Report. Traveling for business, should be at the meeting. Helped set up for Coronation and Stormgods was a whirlwind.

Robin and I want to express are most humble gratitude with everyone who helped with the wedding. You all made it a day we will never forget.

My term of office is up please see me if you have any questions about serving the Barony as Chamberlain

Laird Ronan Mac an Leagha

Arts and Science: AElfwynn absent, Written report

As per our plan, the second July meeting was a sewing night to make youth garb for Gold Key. Donna and I produced one tunic and Anora/Alise made another one at home. I also helped Donna make adult warm weather garb for Gold Key.

The first meeting in August was sparsely attended, just myself and Annalise. No specific plans for the second August meeting, I will try to coordinate with Helvi to get the change over into effect for the September meetings.

YIS,

H.L. AElfwynn Fiske, JdL, GdS

Chatelaine: Póra absent, written report
To their Excellencies and Populace of Stromgard,

I regret to inform you that I will not be able to be in attendance at our monthly baronial meeting due to family being in town.

I set up a newcomers table at Stormgods next to gold key and had a couple of newcomers take cards/information, but didn't have a lot of direct contact because I was escorting media during the event. I encourage anyone that brought newcomers to please let them know that I'm a resource available to them, should they need it!

As many of you know, the Columbian made it out to our event and wrote a nice article about us. It is posted to the Baronial book of faces, but I have it linked here: <https://www.columbian.com/projects/2018/08/05/swords-chivalry-in-the-heat-of-the-battle/>

Two newcomers have contacted me about possibly attending archery nights and I have provided them with the outgoing archery marshal's information and the location of the practice.

I continue to follow up with several people that have requested more information and will keep everyone posted if newcomers are going to particular events.

Yours in Service,
Þóra Jórðsalafari

Demo Coordinator present, written report
To their Excellencies Baron and Baroness, Officers and Populace of Stromgard, WOW What a great Stormgods/Game of Thorns this year huh! I had a fantastic time volunteering at Gate and Water Baring. And I think the Race for the Horde was a success!

Next up is September Crown and I hope to see many of you there!

Just a few highlights to report this month:

- 'Drink Like A Viking' social night at Heathen Brewery needs a date. I'd like to get everyone's opinion on when it would be good to host this event.
- * I am currently having chats with Vancouver Parks & Recreation about another Demo in the Fall. I am looking into hosing it at Marshall Community Park because of its proximity to Clark college and its visibility from a few main roads. Again, what date does the Barony think will work for this?

Please email/message me if you have any suggestions or questions!

Yours In Service,
Dagmar Thorfinnsdottir (SCAdian formerly known as Callithyia)

Gold Key: Donatella absent, written report

Stormgods was a successful event for Gold Key garb loans. Our customers consisted of a few newcomers, people who had forgotten their garb and several who had brought garb but were looking for something lighter weight due to the heat. Although not everything that was loaned came back, we did receive a few very nice donations so it all balanced out. YIS,
Donnina (Donatella) Donatelli

Chronicler: Penelope present, written report

Greetings unto Their Excellencies and the Barony of Stromgard.

The July and August Siren have been upload onto the Stromgard Facebook Group and the Stream.

The 2nd Quarter report has been sent to the Kingdom Chronicler.

Officers please continue sending reports to the new Office 365 account - Stromgard.Chronicler@antir.org. Organizing was much easier with most of the reports coming to the same location.

Thank you

Knight Marshal: written report from Duncan

Fighter Practice Report 8-6-18 Attendance has been light due to July Coronation, and Stormgods, but we still had between 5 and 10 fighters at practice this past month. We also had an extra practice / holmgang tournament on Sunday July 15th, and Duke Roger won the day. There will be a regional fighter practice at the Multnomah Arts Center on Sunday the 12th from 2pm to 5pm.

Last but not least, there are no injuries to report.

Archery Marshal: Refskegg present, written report,
Greetings!
Archery has been going great in Stromgard. We've had some new members join us!

Everyone has been putting in scores and our Yeoman have been seeing huge increases (Congrats Annora, Feradach and Kata)

Archery has been going great and we continue to improve our setup. The site is amazing again a huge Thank you to Merrit for use of it.

She has even agreed to let us double our practices! From now until the Storm-Hunter tournament we will be practicing on Mondays at Tuesdays at 630.

We are starting to look for a winter location so if anyone has a lead on a big barn or other roofed area let me know! Even if it is just a monthly thing we dont want to get too rusty.

For real now, this should be my last report as archery marshal. It has been a huge pleasure serving this great barony and I look forward to continuing to serve in other ways.

Yours in Service,
Yeoman Refskegg of House Bread

Minister of Arts and Sciences (per Baronial Customary)

- 1) The Minister of Arts and Sciences is responsible for fostering the practice of period arts and sciences within the Barony.
- 2) Duties and responsibilities of the Minister of Arts and Sciences include, but are not limited to:
 - Performing the office of the Minister of Arts and Sciences in accordance with directions from Kingdom and/or Regional superior(s).
 - Ensuring that an Arts and Sciences meeting is scheduled and open to Citizens.
 - Assisting those with questions in the arts and sciences in finding the information or resources needed, if possible.
 - Recommending to The Coronet those whose skills and/or work in service to the arts and sciences show them to be worthy of Baronial recognition, or awards.
 - Encouraging arts and sciences competitions within the Barony.
 - Working with and fostering communications with any arts and/or sciences related groups and guilds as applicable.
 - Maintaining a list of resource people and their skills.
 - Working with the Baronial scribe if applicable.
 - Follows the general duties of officers.

Greetings to the Populace, Officers, Peers & Excellencies of Stromgard. I, Helvi av Gotland, do hereby declare in this letter, my intent to serve in the Office of Arts and Sciences.

The current Arts and Sciences Officer, having faithfully fulfilled her duties with honor, is stepping down. In my intended service, I hope to continue the tradition of every other Tuesday meetings in my home. I have ample supplies on hand, as I am always making things or trying to make things. I also love research which is good, since that is part of my mundane job.

I know a number of persons in our Barony who may be amenable to teach classes, pass on a wide range of historical knowledge, or further inspire the artisans and craftspersons of our fair Barony at our Arts and Sciences meetings. I am inspired, impressed and enthusiastically look forward to seeing what our artisans, craftspersons, bards and others create. I look forward to taking a part in upholding the traditions of our StormMaker tournament.

“Creativity” is central to the life of the Society as a whole. The Arts and Sciences Officer is responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology. Duties include providing offering opportunities for artist, craftspersons and researchers to share their knowledge and skills, and to supporting friendly competition in the Arts and Sciences. Along with the administrative tasks, promoting, encouraging and supporting will form the focus of my term in office, if my petition is granted.

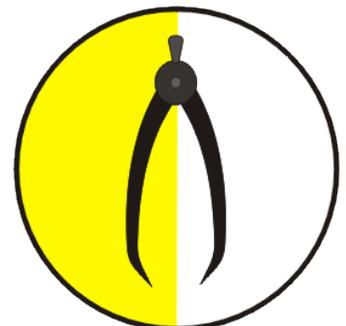

I am a member in Good Standing, as attested to the honors I have been granted: Bell and Chain, Award of Arms and Ordo Famuli. Having served as Chatelaine, I have over the years participated in promoting the Arts and Sciences within our fair Barony. I have assisted at events, hosted demos, taught classes, and am able to coordinate with youth, scribal, heraldic, and military officers as well as guilds and groups within the populace to ensure a wide range of Arts and Sciences topics are brought forth.

I already subscribe to a number of groups, pages and mailing lists to allow me to find and keep loose tabs on resources available to the many facets of Arts and Sciences. However, my net is by no means exhaustive. I am always finding and learning more, which is the whole point of Arts and Sciences, I think. To discover, to learn, and then add that new knowledge to one’s SCA tool kit so it can be shared with others.

I intend to schedule and publish six months in advance, what is happening for each meeting so our citizens, neighbors and newcomers are aware of dates and topics of interest (as well as any cancellations) so they can schedule accordingly. I further intend to attend Kingdom and neighboring Baronial Arts and Sciences events and learn from neighboring and Kingdom Arts and Sciences officers, as well continuing to consult with our illustrious past Arts and Sciences officers, Viscountess Ilaria and Lady Aelfwyn.

I do not take the duties of the office lightly. To that end, I regret I will be unable to give the office the proper time and attention until after August, it is my fervent wish to begin in September to give it my utmost efforts to successfully uphold the honor and duties of the Office, if my request to serve as Stromgard’s Arts and Sciences Officer is granted.

Yours in Grateful Service,
Helvi av Gotland
